6th Annual Romeo Victorian Festival
Saturday May 21, 2011
Romeo, Michigan
MERCHANT APPLICATION

The Romeo Historical Society (RHS) is offering the Romeo Merchants an opportunity to participate in the 6th Annual Romeo Victorian Festival, held in downtown Romeo, in conjunction with the Relay for Life.

Visitors are invited to take a step back in time as the historic village of Romeo pours on the Victorian charm. Downtown Romeo's historic streetscape will be the backdrop for this magnificent springtime festival with activities including a Blacksmith Hammer-IN, Craft demonstrations/sales, Victorian Promenade, Open Air Painters, Free Carriage/Trolley Rides, Live Bag piper, Folk Music, Civil War Reenactors, Moustache Contest, Train Display, Historical Museum Exhibits, Vintage Photo Id/Display at the Kezar Library, Starkweather Gallery, Costumed Entertainers and Kids Games.

Note: More items are being added as we receive more sponsors!

For more information contact RHS President Sue Kane at 586-377-4610 or the Romeo Historical Society at 586-752-4111. Festival meetings are held at the Romeo Arts and Archives building, located at 290 N. Main St., every Tuesday from 7p.m. to 8 p.m. and are open to the public.

Merchants are encouraged to dress the part, showcase their products and perhaps host an event to draw in the visitors.
